The BOOK CLUB PLAY

A Comedy by Karen Zacarías

A comedy about books and the people who love them.

March 8 - 30

BARTER THEATRE
1933
Gilliam
STAGE

The book club started by Ana and her friends has become the subject of a documentary film, and all is going swimmingly until a new member throws the group dynamic into chaos – chaos that’s unfortunately caught on camera! Will these friends survive the revelation of their deepest secrets? The Book Club Play is a hilariously playful testament to the power of literature and its ability to bring us together. Welcome to the club!
